: Multicountry Observational Study Mission on Productivity Enhancement in the Healthcare Sector,
30 September – 2 October 2024, Seoul,
Republic of Korea (ROK).

Congratulations on your acceptance to the above programme by the Asian Productivity Organization (APO).

2. On behalf of the Asian Productivity Organization (APO), I am pleased to inform that you have been selected to participate in the program above. Enclosed with this letter is a copy of the "Letter of Acceptance" for your further action.
3. Please note that you are responsible for the following:
 - i) Visa (if necessary)
Please refer to the APO Secretariat (MPC) for visa application. All expenses related to visa to be borne by the participant.
 - ii) Insurance
Travel insurance with a minimum coverage value of USD10,000.00 to cover accident, illness, hospitalization, death, and specific expenses related to COVID-19 such as medical treatment, extension of stay due to quarantine, and flight rescheduling/cancellation, if applicable. Participants are required to submit copies of insurance certificates to the APO Secretariat prior to departure.
 - iii) Flight Arrangement
All flight bookings will be made by MPC. The APO secretariat will bear the cost of your flight tickets and accommodation in Seoul, ROK.

iv) Other Important Points:

- a) Please ensure that you arrive in Seoul on time.
- b) Last minute withdrawals and no-shows result in unnecessary expenses and therefore you are requested to inform the APO and MPC at least a month before the programme if you should become unable to take part in the project and state the reason.
- c) You are NOT ALLOWED to bring any family members during the official project.
- d) You are requested not to engage in personal business activities while the official project is in progress

4. For more information on the matters above, please refer to the Project Circular sent by APO. All other enquiries can be made by contacting the APO Liaison Officer for Malaysia, Ms Abigail at 012 5396 594 or via email: abigail@mpc.gov.my

Thank you.
