Invitation Letter: 9th ASEAN-OECD Good Regulatory Practice Network (28th November, Jakarta, Indonesia)

GOV/REG(2024)18

12 September 2024

Dear ASEAN-OECD GRPN members and friends,

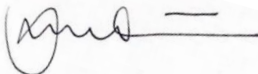

It is my pleasure to invite you to the 9th Meeting of the ASEAN-OECD Good Regulatory Practice Network (ASEAN-OECD GRPN), scheduled for 28th November 2024 in Jakarta, Indonesia. This year's meeting will focus on shaping better regulations for the future, with discussions centred on the importance of Good Regulatory Practices (GRPs) in fostering a more technologically responsible and future-friendly world.

Since its inception in 2015, the ASEAN-OECD GRPN has been a vital network for the OECD. Comprising senior officials and experts responsible for GRPs in the ASEAN region and across the OECD, the network has consistently focused on building an environment that supports international peer-to-peer engagements and showcases best practices for advancing good regulatory governance.

This year's meeting will be held at the Westin Jakarta, with the event scheduled on November 28th from 8:30 AM to 5:00 PM. The core themes will include how countries are navigating the new digital age with principles of better regulation, how they are leveraging digital tools to advance GRPs, and the steps they are taking to support agile regulatory governance for the future. If you are interested in presenting your country's experience on one of these topics, we encourage you to contact the OECD Secretariat by 11th October for further discussions.

It is once again a great pleasure to be formally inviting you to this event, and I would also like to express my deepest gratitude to the Republic of Indonesia's Coordinating Ministry for Economic Affairs for their generous support in hosting this year's GRPN meeting. I look forward to meeting as many of you at the end of November!

With my kindest regards,

Anna Pietikäinen
