Dear Datuk Lokman Hakim,

It has become increasingly crucial for companies to identify, manage, and report on significant Environmental, Social and Governance (ESG) risks and opportunities while also managing risks and optimizing opportunities that consider social, environmental (or ecological), and financial capital, to ensure long-term success.

To aid in the adoption and implementation of ESG within the business community we are bringing to you a highly interactive series of ESG-focused courses, the second course, ESG Risk Identification and Materiality is scheduled for the 6th of September 2022 between 2:00 pm and 6:15 pm.

This course is expertly tailored to provide you with a sound understanding of the materiality assessment process as a necessary foundation of sustainability reporting and a valuable enterprise strategic tool.

Following this course on ESG Risk Identification and Materiality you will be able to advance your corporate sustainability knowledge through these other courses that will be made available to you over the coming months:
